

ABOUT GUYANA

Guyana is called “the land of many waters” and was settled by the Dutch in the 17th century. As a result to increased African slave trade, many Amerindian natives fled to the country’s interior and established villages.

Today, the Amerindian villages are most Roman Catholic and many have Anglican and Pentecostal denominations. The Lord’s church has a presence in some but not all.

The goal of Global Harvest Mission in Guyana is to establish faithful congregations in every village and to strengthen existing churches through campaign preaching and teaching as well as training in personal Bible study.

“Lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for the harvest” (Luke 4:35).

“For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, ‘How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!’”
